My dear Stan:

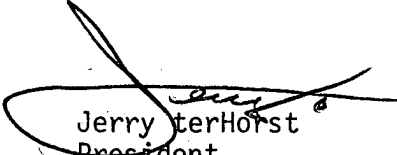

It is my great pleasure to invite you and Mrs. Turner to be honored guests of the Gridiron Club at its annual Winter Dinner on Saturday, December 10, at the Capitol Hilton Hotel.

As always, the men and women of the Gridiron and their spouses are planning an evening of festivities and good food in the time-honored Gridiron tradition. We anticipate another sterling performance by the Gridiron Chorus, with a musical lampoon or two or three about the fun and foibles of political life in Washington. There may even be some roasting of the press!

Your presence will grace the evening for us, and we trust your schedule is such that you will be able to accept. The Reception will commence at 6 o'clock in the South American Room, followed by Dinner at 7. Black Tie.

Awaiting your early response, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Jerry TerHorst
President
The Gridiron Club
